

BIO:

Jesse Ruben is a singer/songwriter currently living in Atlanta, GA. He has been signed to BMG and Universal Music, and his songs have gotten more than a dozen placements in the US and abroad, including One Tree Hill, Teen Mom, and The Bachelor (Germany). He has toured across the US, Europe, and Asia.

Beyond his music career, Ruben is highly active in philanthropic endeavors. He has run the New York City Marathon five times to support Lyme disease research, after overcoming a three year battle with the illness. He is also the founder of The We Can Project, an initiative for elementary and middle school students designed to help them discover their passions and give back to their communities. So far, more than 500,000 students across the US and Canada have participated. To promote the program, he was invited by Hoda to perform live on The TODAY Show.
